Made in the Streets of Africa: A story of discovery and passion to rescue street kids.

Executive producer: Robert Moehr

$17.59
DVD documentary

When two young men arrive in Africa to help build a ministry called "Made in the Streets," a mission to rescue street children from physical and drug abuses, they assume their role will be to serve the staff. Instead, they become key players in the mission due to the hundreds of children that have fled to the streets. A real life documentary that will move you to laughter and tears as the goodness of the human heart and hope for the future of humanity is brilliantly captured on film.
